

THINK EARTHQUAKE DESTROYED CABLES

Company Officials Believe No Hurricane Broke Jamaica Lines.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Grave concern is felt in shipping circles here today over the continued absence of definite information concerning the hurricane which cut off communication with West Indian points south of Santiago, Cuba.

Companies with ships plying toward the West Indies have been able to communicate with them by wireless. This is declared to be due to the severe rain, which was reported before the cable companies announced that they were unable to reach Jamaica.

The Commercial Cable Company today issued the following notice:

"All points beyond Santiago, Cuba, are cut off."

The Western Union Cable Company is accepting messages for points beyond Santiago subject to forwarding by mail from that point.

It is generally believed that no hurricane, however violent, could have seriously impaired the cable service, and it is accepted as the general theory among officials that an earthquake or some volcanic disturbance under the sea will be reported when communication is restored.

LOADED COACHES CRASH OVER BANK

Heavy Casualties Are Feared When Italian Train Jumps Track Near Rome.

ROME, Nov. 11.—A heavy passenger train bound from Tivoli to Rome jumped the track at Montecchio today and crashed down a steep embankment. Heavy casualties are feared.

SAWS WOOD AT 104.

In full possession of his mental faculties, with sight and hearing sound, and with a voice for the songs of long ago, Richard Withers, of Great Rollright, has passed his 104th birthday. Few men even twenty or thirty years his junior would care to attempt sawing wood, but manual labor of this sort in no way alarms Mr. Withers.—Baltimore American.

ENOUGH IS TOO MUCH.

"May I ask you a friendly question?" "Sure."

"Why don't you hire a servant? Your wife is in feeble health."

"That's just it. She has all she can do now. I don't want her to have any more to cook for."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

CEASE THE ARGUMENT ON THE POLAR ISSUE

Why? Because Neither Cook Nor Peary "Discovered" the Top o' the World If Mme. Elsie Pfeiffer, of Cumberland Co., Va., Can Prove Her Claim.

It's all settled now! Those who have been racking and worrying and fuming over this polar discovery embroglio can now rest in peace. Commander Peary might as well assume a recumbent attitude far into the distant past of oblivion, as they would express it in Boston. And Dr. Cook, his counter-claimant to the honor of finding the glacial big stick may repose in utter rout at his Brooklyn home stripped and robbed of the honors which have been heaped upon him.

The real discoverer of the pole was Mme. Elsie Pfeiffer, a resident of Cumberland county, Va. She says so herself.

The National Geographic Society hasn't recognized that fact; indeed, they have never heard of Mme. Pfeiffer. And at the University of Copenhagen, where they are guarding the records of Dr. Cook with a zeal that would put the United States Treasury watchdogs to blush, Mme. Pfeiffer is a total stranger. Shame! in fact more than that—$25,000 worth of shame!

MRS. PEEL AWARDED MONTHLY ALIMONY

Former Washington Woman Now On Stage Will Use Money for Support of Child.

Twenty-five dollars a month alimony for the support of their six-month-old baby is fixed by Justice Abner in awarding a decree of divorce in favor of Alice E. Peel against J. Ervin Peel, who formerly lived in the Newberne apartment house, in this city.

Mrs. Peel, who is at present on the stage, waived her right to personal maintenance. They were married October 25, 1904, and lived together until their separation, on May 17, last.

CHARGE FOR CHEESE.

At the siege of Fredericksburg, when the Confederates were enduring even more than their usual pang of hunger, one of the Southern skirmishing parties made a sudden raid on an unsuspecting Federal brigade. After some interchange of firing the assailants rushed upon their disconcerted enemy. One emaciated Johnnie hurriedly emptied the knapsack of a prostrate soldier, and straightening up, regardless of blades and bullets, waved his booty over his head. "Charge 'em, boys, charge 'em!" he yelled. "they've got cheese!"—Indianapolis News.

For Mme. Pfeiffer, French born, and a graduate of the French Academy, has requested the French ambassador by letter, including affidavits, to enter suit in her name to recover from the Government of the United States that sum for the theft of a map which, she says, discloses the locality of the North Pole.

Mme. Pfeiffer says the knowledge of the movement which defines the position of the globe was discovered by her in 1892 after a lifetime of study. She filed a map showing the pointing of the pole from the position of the globe. It is this map for which she sues. She says she is the real discoverer of the pole and that Peary and Cook weren't in it at all.

But, nevertheless, the scientific world continues to wag and the National Geographic Society persists in seeing the Cook records. And likewise Commander Peary holds like grim, Arctic death, to his medal of honor for what he has done. And in the meantime the real discoverer of the pole—that is to say, the person who put her lead pencil upon a certain spot on a miniature globe and pointed out to some of her friends just where the pole is or ought to be—sits in obscurity.

The days of chivalry 'twould appear, have passed forever.

EARL GREY PREDICTS NEW CANADIAN LAWS

Opens Parliament and Announces Probable Program Of Legislation.

OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 11.—An unusually large gathering of spectators witnessed the opening of the second session of the eleventh parliament of Canada today.

The speech which Earl Grey, the Governor General, read in opening parliament, made reference to the Imperial defense conference held in London this summer and the naval program which the government has adopted as a result of it.

Other legislation foreshadowed by the speech was the revision of the bank act; the discussion in the senate of the insurance bill which has been before the house of commons for two sessions and the immigration bill, which was allowed to stand over from last session.

MANY WILL ATTEND CHURCH DEDICATION

Lutherans Are Greatly Interested in Exercises Here Next Sunday.

Representatives of all of Washington's Lutheran churches and many prominent Lutheran ministers from other cities have accepted the invitation to present at the dedicatory services next Sunday morning at the Lutheran Church of the Reformation, Second street and Pennsylvania avenue southeast.

The exercises are to be dedicated extensive improvements made in the church auditorium and a number of memorials given in memory of former members of the church. The Rev. Dr. W. S. Fries, of Baltimore, will preach the sermon.

Prominent among the memorials is the pulpit given by Harris Slater and Mrs. Helen Mallory in memory of their father, Isaac Cooper Slater, who was an attorney for the Southern railway until the time of his death and was superintendent of the Reformation Sunday School for many years. Another is an altar rail given by Mrs. G. A. Richardson, widow of Dr. G. A. Richardson. Other memorials include a brass lectern, an altar cross, pulpit Bible, electric light chandeliers, and hymn boards.

Souvenir programs of the dedicatory exercises have just been issued by the Rev. Dr. John Weidley, pastor of the church.

HOME-MADE DRINKS STILL TO BE FOUND

Home-made cordials and wines have not yet gone out of fashion, and this is the season for making them. They are not even confined to country places. From London, Leicester, and Wigan come excellent beverages, writes a correspondent, which I have often tasted, each the result of a housekeeper's skill.

Cordials are now, of course, except in a few highly favored localities, hard to get in sufficient quantities to make the well-known accompaniment to seed cake so popular with our early Victorian grandmothers. The ginger, raisins, or rhubarb as the basis of home-made wines, and one should not omit to mention the more lately imported tangerine, from which is made a very popular liquor.—Manchester Guardian.

QUICK RETORT.

Two Jehus had narrowly escaped colliding in one of the main streets, and as each blamed "t'other," they commenced slanging each other. "Go on," said one. "You've to tie a knot in yer nag's tail to keep it from falling into the nose-bag!"

"Why, if yer old nag fell down, you'd have to strike a light to look for it!"—Detroit News-Tribune.

EAST AGAINST WEST AT HORSE EXHIBIT

Six-in-Hand Teams Chief Attractions at the Madison Square Garden.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—For the first time since the horse show opened, six-in-hand teams from the West are being shown today in competition against the Easterners.

The champion six-in-hand, owned by Morris & Co., is the chief attraction. This company held the honor for five years. The Morris Clydesdales hold the championship of England, Scotland, Canada, and America.

In point of attendance all records have so far been broken by the show. The feature of the morning session was the exhibition of young trotting stock. Leo E. Kinney, a sixty-year-old farmer from Bushnell, Ill., rode his own entry, Marvel King, and managed to annex second prize in the open class for trotting stallions.

All aged trotting stallions—First, Sir Robin, Horatio M. Bain, Newport, R. I.; second, Marvel King, L. B. Kinney, Bushnell, Ill.

Two-year-old trotting fillies—First, Addie L. Wickless, H. M. Bain, Newport. Three-year-old trotting fillies—First, second and third to Okum Belle and Moco Bird, Miss Wilkes.

Two-year-old stallions—First, Muchborne King, James McClenahan, Port Chester, N. Y. Three-year-old stallions—First, The Welchman, John R. McAnany, Philadelphia.

Important to All Women Readers of This Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer a great deal with pain in the back, bearing-down feelings, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be despondent; it makes any one so.

But thousands of irritable, nervous, tired and broken-down women have restored their health and strength by the use of Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy.

Swamp-Root brings new life and activity to the kidneys, the cause of such troubles.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy will do for them. Every reader of this paper, who is already troubled in any way, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and receive sample bottle free by mail. You can purchase the regular 11-oz. bottle and one-dollar size bottles at all drug stores.

LEAPS TO DEATH.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 11.—Finding he was on the wrong train, Constine Kristul in his excitement jumped from a Reading coach midway between Pottsville and Minersville and was struck by the steps. The entire top of his head was knocked off.

SIX DEER KILLED.

MAY'S LANDING, N. J., Nov. 11.—The second day of the deer shooting season resulted in the killing of only six deer, although the woods were full of hunters. Close watch was kept by the game warden to see that they did not violate the law.

Rid Yourself of Indigestion, Gas, and Sour Stomach

Mi-o-na Stomach Tablets Give Immediate Relief and Permanent Cure, or Money Back.

People who suffer from weak stomach, distress after eating, belching of gas, sourness, bad taste in mouth, foul breath, biliousness, dizziness or dyspepsia in any form, should not be satisfied with a makeshift remedy.

The stomach was made to digest food and when through abuse or accident it becomes weak and run down, immediate steps should be taken to build it up, to put strength and elasticity into the flabby muscular walls, so that it will be able to extract nutritious matter from the food and send it to enrich the blood.

Mi-o-na stomach tablets are made from a prescription containing ingredients that purify, renovate and make the stomach strong enough to do what nature intended it should do.

Mi-o-na stomach tablets will, if taken regularly, turn an old overworked stomach into a new, strong, sweet one in a few weeks. There is no other preparation or earth that can do so much.

for the great majority of stomach sufferers as Mi-o-na stomach tablets.

A stomach constantly treated with strong digesters, given simply to do the work your stomach ought to do, will soon become lazy and flabby from want of exercise and will gradually demand the strongest digesters and more of them until the limit is reached; the stomach is dead before the man, but the man will quickly follow.

Mi-o-na tablets will relieve your distressed stomach, will make it feel good in a few minutes; but Mi-o-na is made to do more; it is made to remove the cause of stomach agony and it is guaranteed to do so. Sold by druggists everywhere and by Henry Evans on liberal money-back plan. Try a 50 cent box on that liberal basis, you unfortunately, who suffer from a rebellious stomach, and forever rid yourself of stomach misery. Mail orders filled by Booth's Mi-o-na, Buffalo, N. Y. All charges prepaid.

Send for our free booklet "Booth's Famous People."
